The Library Committee shall divide the books and other articles belonging to the Library into three classes, namely: (a) those which are not to be removed from the building; (b) those which may be taken only by written permission of three members of the committee; (c) those which may circulate under the following rules.

Members shall be entitled to take from the Library two folio or quarto volumes, or four volumes of lesser fold, with the plates belonging to the same, upon having them recorded by the Librarian, or Assistant Librarian, and promising to make good any damage they sustain, while in their possession, and to replace the same if lost, or pay a sum fixed by the Library Committee.

No person shall lend any book belonging to the Institute, excepting to a member, under a penalty of one dollar for each offence.

The Library Committee may allow members to take more than the allotted number of books upon a written application, and may also permit other persons than members to use the Library under such conditions as they may impose.

No person shall detain any book longer than four weeks from the Library, if notified that the same is wanted by another member, under a penalty of five cents per day, and no volume shall be detained longer than three months at one time under the same penalty.

The Librarian shall have power by order of the Library Committee to call in any volume after it has been retained by a member for ten days.

On or before the first Wednesday in May, all books shall be returned to the Library, and a penalty of five cents per day shall be imposed for each volume detained.

No book shall be allowed to circulate until one month after its receipt.

MARY ALICE KNOX, B.A.

This famous school, established by Emma Willard in 1821, conducted by her daughter from 183[illegible] and since that time as a Day School by Miss Emily T Wilcox, will be opened as a Boarding School, a[illegible] as for day scholars, on September 25, 1895.

The Seminary will be under the charge of Miss Mary Alice Knox, B.A., for the past ten years Pro[illegible] in Wellesley College.

Miss Knox's long experience enables her to organize the school for its new work, and arrang[illegible] course of instruction in line with the most approved and modern methods.

BUILDINGS OF THE SCHOOL.

The school now occupies three new and beautiful buildings erected for its use, equipped with th[illegible] modern appliances, as nearly fire-proof as the best experience can suggest, and they are thus [illegible] convenient and perfectly safe. These are:

THE GURLEY MEMORIAL HALL, built of granite and brown stone, containing the Assembl[illegible] Recitation Rooms, Library, Laboratory, Gymnasium, etc.

THE ANNA M. PLUM HALL, of the same material, devoted to Music and Art, with Pipe O[illegible], Pianos, etc., on the lower floor; and Art Gallery, Studios and Alcove above.

THE RUSSELL SAGE HALL, designed as a home for teachers and boarding pupils, beau[illegible]ly furnished, and supplied with the best modern conveniences for the health and comfort of its inmates.

SESSIONS.

The School year is thirty-eight weeks, making three terms in the year, commencing with the twent[illegible]th day of September, 1895, closing with the third Wednesday in June, 1896.

With the Fall Session the Boarding Department of the Emma Willard School opens under most fav[illegible]able circumstances.

The New Dormitory supplies most excellent and safe accommodation for students, and with new[illegible] of study and new methods of instruction will attract, as we hope, a large accession of pupils from abro[illegible]

The Day School will also be completely re-organized and conformed to the modern systems of sc[illegible]ar-ship and progress, thus affording to pupils residing at their own homes means of advanced edu[illegible]tion equalled by few schools and colleges for young ladies in the country.

The Institution has recently been more completely equipped for instruction in the physical sci[illegible], and classes in primary branches have been arranged, which offer unusual advantages for young child[illegible]

The School thus affords to parents from abroad, as well as to the Citizens of Troy, unexcelled fac[illegible]ies for the thorough and economical education of their daughters in beautiful and healthful surroundings[illegible], under the care of able and successful instructors, familiar with the best and most approved meth[illegible]ds of modern schools.

For further information apply to, or address,

This Company owns the entire water power of the Mohawk River at Cohoes, embracing the celebrated Cohoes Falls. Aggregate fall, one hundred and twenty feet, giving nearly ten thousand horse-power. The Company's gate house and dam are among the finest structures of the kind in the United States.

The canals are so constructed as to give a succession of falls from one canal to another, varying in height from twelve to twenty-five feet. The power is leased by the Company, with land for factory building, in perpetuity, at an annual rental of about twenty dollars per horse-power, and considering the quality, is the cheapest in the country. It is an unfailing power; and during the past few years, while most of the water powers in the country have failed for a time, Cohoes has had an abundant supply, without one minute's stoppage. About one-third of this magnificent power is unappropriated, and appurtenant thereto are some of the finest factory sites to be found anywhere.

Cohoes is situated at the confluence of the Mohawk and Hudson Rivers, about four miles from Troy and ten from Albany, and is eligibly located with reference to New York and other markets, and possesses superior advantages for transportation to market, either by river, canal or railroad, having two canals and two railroads running through it. It is a thriving young city of nearly twenty thousand inhabitants, and contains some of the finest cotton and other factories in the United States.

THE

Cosmopolitan School of Music, Art and Languages.

107 FIRST STREET.

MADAME MARIE GODINI, Principal.
CHEVALIER DON AURELIO CERUELOS, Director.

JAY L. THOMPSON, Secretary.

THE BUILDING is large and commodious, easy of access, and is fitted with dormitory facilities for students of either branches who desire to reside in the artistic atmosphere of the institution. A large musical library is accessible to students at all times.

THE SCHOOL is equipped with a corps of efficient teachers, who are prepared to give instruction upon all musical instruments.

THE COURSE OF STUDY is divided into four general divisions, viz., Elementary, Preparatory, Intermediate and Advanced. It embraces as many works of the masters as it is possible to study thoroughly, with a correct execution and interpretation, in the allotted time of the Course.

THE METHODS OF INSTRUCTION are of the most advanced used in European Conservatories.

It has now become a necessity in following a Complete Course of Vocal Music to study one or more Modern Languages, particularly in the study of Opera, both Italian and German. This School, therefore, is prepared to offer the best methods, directed by the most efficient masters, for acquiring a perfect accent and pronunciation of the Languages.

THE ART DEPARTMENT is roomy, well lighted, and fully equipped for the study of Drawing, Modeling, Painting in all its various branches, Needlework, &c., under the capable direction of MRS. MATTIE MCCONIHE.

FREE EXHIBITIONS OF WORKS OF ART are given monthly, and in order to accustom pupils in music to perform in public and to give all pupils the greatest possible opportunity to hear good music and to increase their knowledge of musical literature, Musicales will also be given monthly during the season, to which the families and friends of the performers have free admission.

Expenses are made as reasonable as possible to all students.

SPECIAL RATES TO STUDENTS TAKING FULL OPERATIC COURSE.

PRINCIPAL.

MARY ALICE KNOX, B.A.

This famous school, established by Emma Willard in 1821, conducted by her daughter from 1838 to 1872, and since that time as a Day School by Miss Emily T. Wilcox, will be opened as a Boarding School, as well as for day scholars, on September 25, 1895.

The Seminary will be under the charge of Miss Mary Alice Knox, B.A., for the past ten years Professor in Wellesley College.

Miss Knox's long experience enables her to organize the school for its new work, and arrange the course of instruction in line with the most approved and modern methods.

BUILDINGS OF THE SCHOOL.

The school now occupies three new and beautiful buildings erected for its use, equipped with the best modern appliances, as nearly fire-proof as the best experience can suggest, and they are thus made convenient and perfectly safe. These are:

THE GURLEY MEMORIAL HALL, built of granite and brown stone, containing the Assembly and Recitation Rooms, Library, Laboratory, Gymnasium, etc.

THE ANNA M. PLUM HALL, of the same material, devoted to Music and Art, with Pipe Organ, Pianos, etc., on the lower floor; and Art Gallery, Studios and Alcove above.

THE RUSSELL SAGE HALL, designed as a home for teachers and boarding pupils, beautifully furnished, and supplied with the best modern conveniences for the health and comfort of its inmates.

SESSIONS.

The School year is thirty-eight weeks, making three terms in the year, commencing with the twenty-fifth day of September, 1895, closing with the third Wednesday in June, 1896.

With the Fall Session the Boarding Department of the Emma Willard School opens under most favorable circumstances.

The New Dormitory supplies most excellent and safe accommodation for students, and with new lines of study and new methods of instruction will attract, as we hope, a large accession of pupils from abroad.

The Day School will also be completely re-organized and conformed to the modern systems of scholarship and progress, thus affording to pupils residing at their own homes means of advanced education equalled by few schools and colleges for young ladies in the country.

The Institution has recently been more completely equipped for instruction in the physical sciences, and classes in primary branches have been arranged, which offer unusual advantages for young children.

The School thus affords to parents from abroad, as well as to the Citizens of Troy, unexcelled facilities for the thorough and economical education of their daughters in beautiful and healthful surroundings and under the care of able and successful instructors, familiar with the best and most approved methods of modern schools.
